Welcome to the Rowan Tree Guest House

The Rowan Tree Guest House provides quality accommodation in the Whitecross area of Hereford.

The late Victorian building has been a guest house for the past fifty years and remains a family run business to this day.

It is conveniently situated only a short walk from the historic city centre and is within one mile of the bus and train stations.

Whether you require a single nights stay or long term accommodation our self contained en suite rooms will provide the comfort you require.
